Every thing we do is artificial, everyone is an artist, all we do is art. Do you believe? So make your cross (kuzifix) for art. For art is the president, art is the leader. If you think art is bullshit, you don't need a choice at all. You do not have to make a cross for art, make an A, do your own ART, or make a questionmark. Maybe art is a religion. You can't elect the pope or a god. You can elect, what you do believe in. Reality is unbelievable. But what you believe, you can change, it seems to change reality for you, for a while?

yes

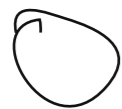

I don't no

no

So if you are a believer so decide, what is your best art? Make a cross for your choice. It's your selection, it's your election. Believe me.

Art of fashism

Art of sozialism

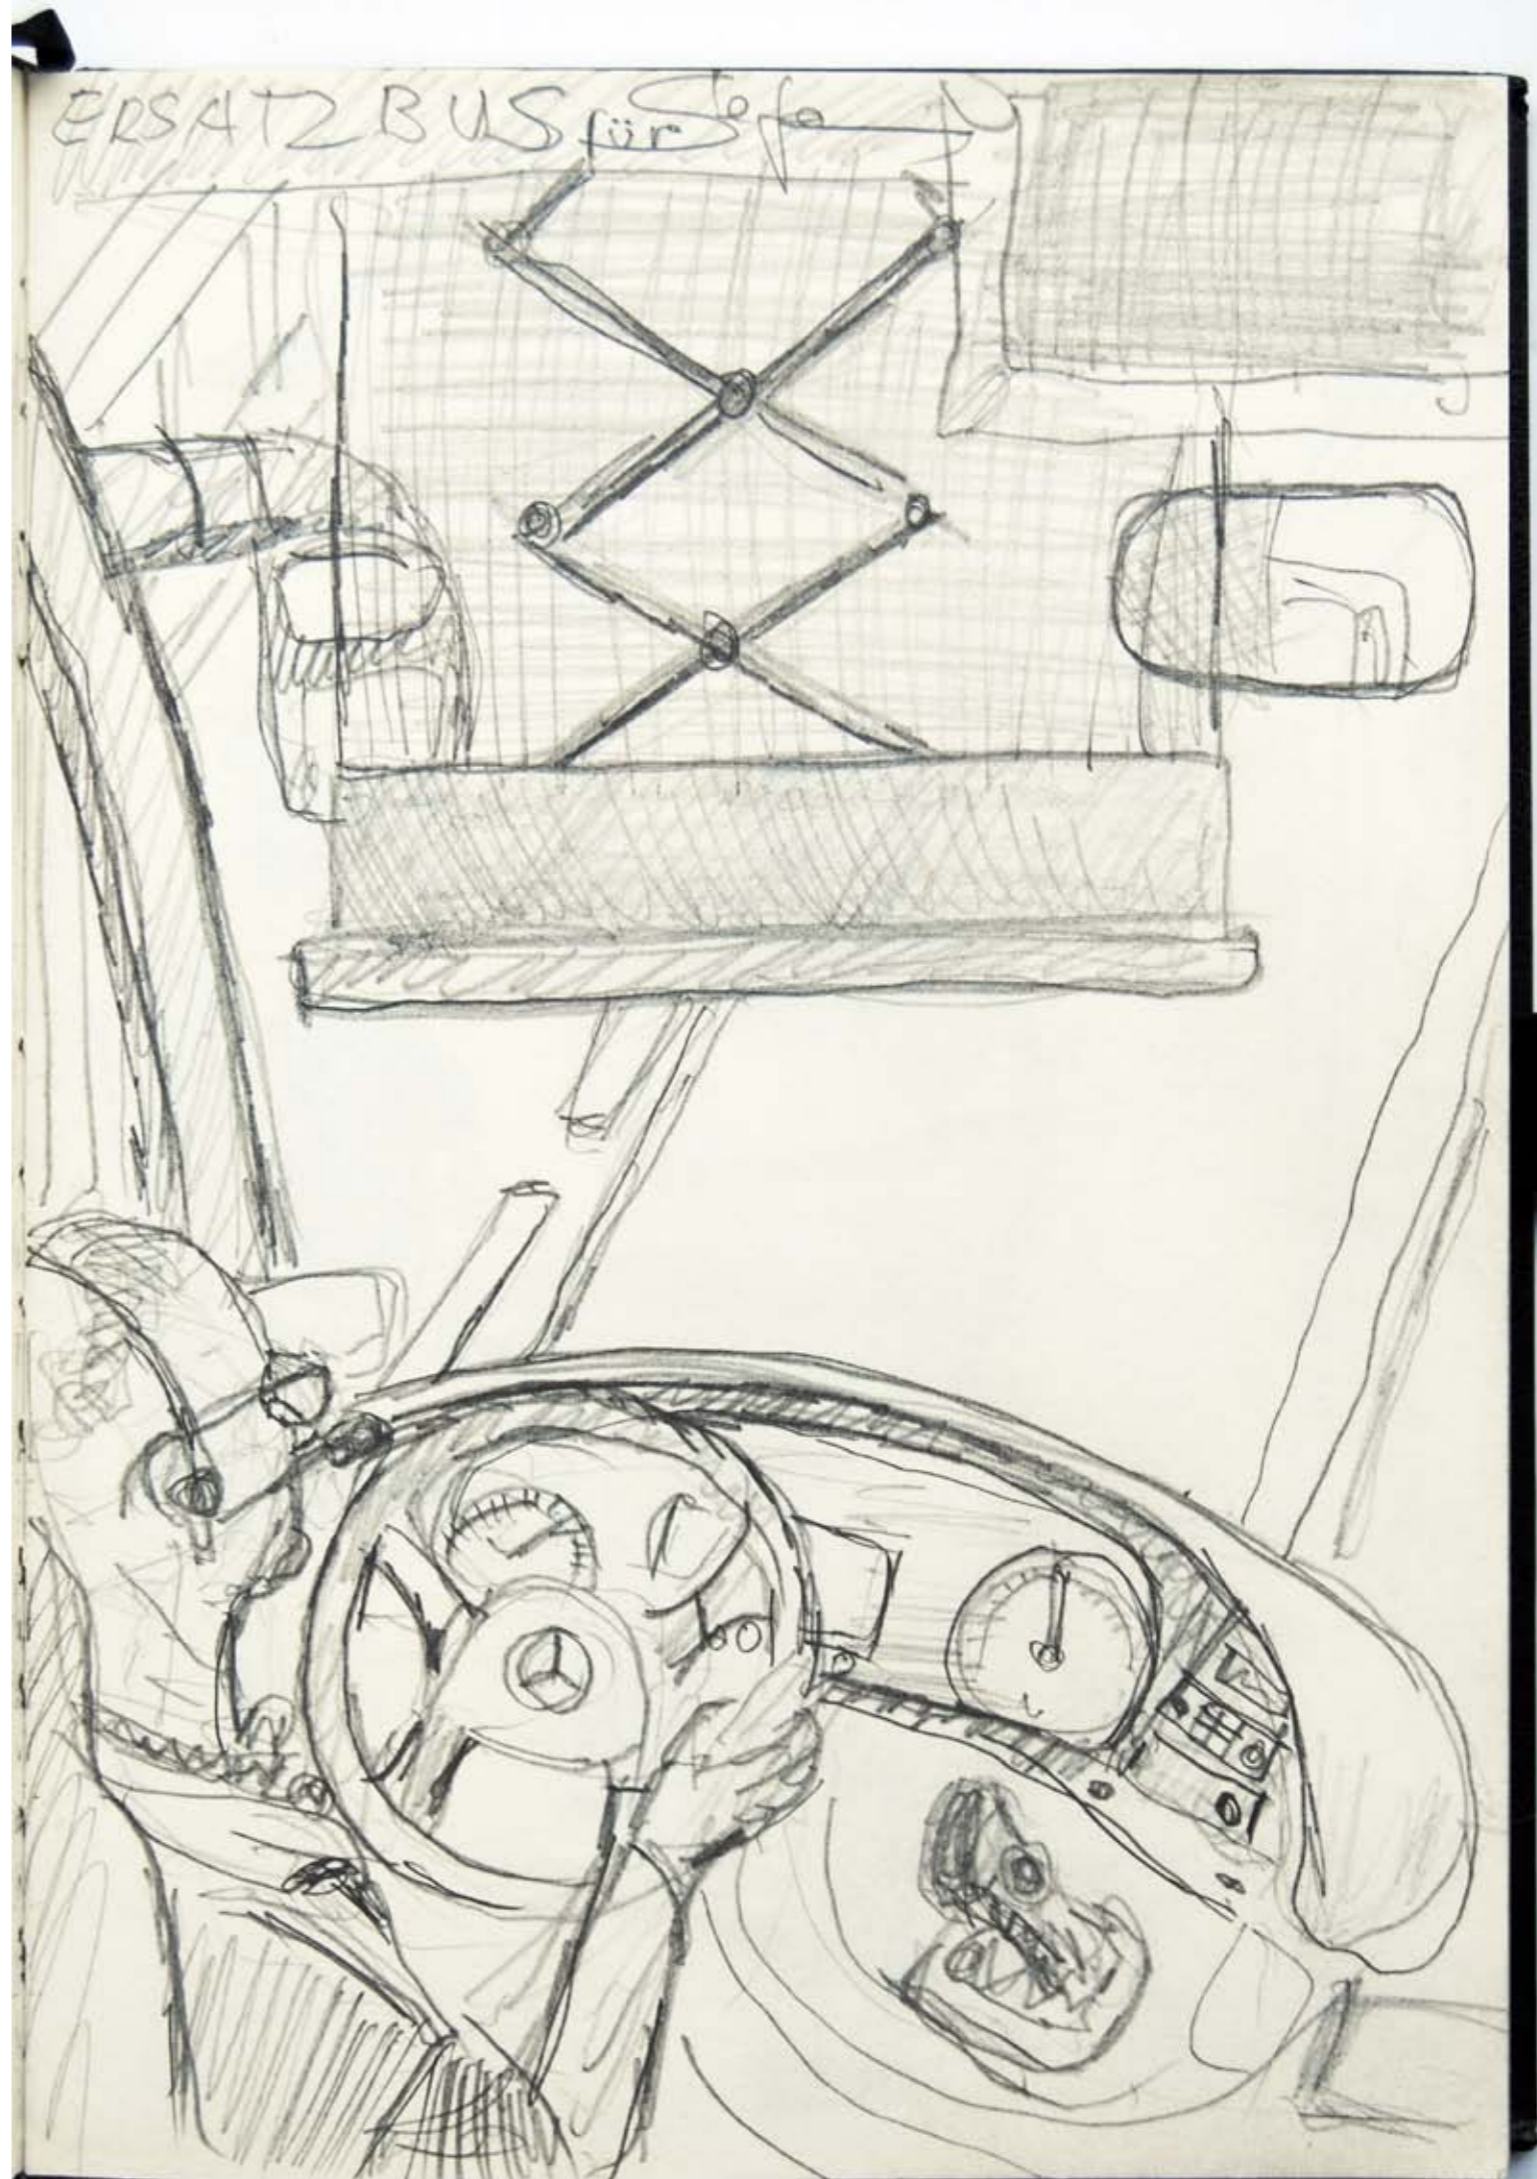

Art of comunism

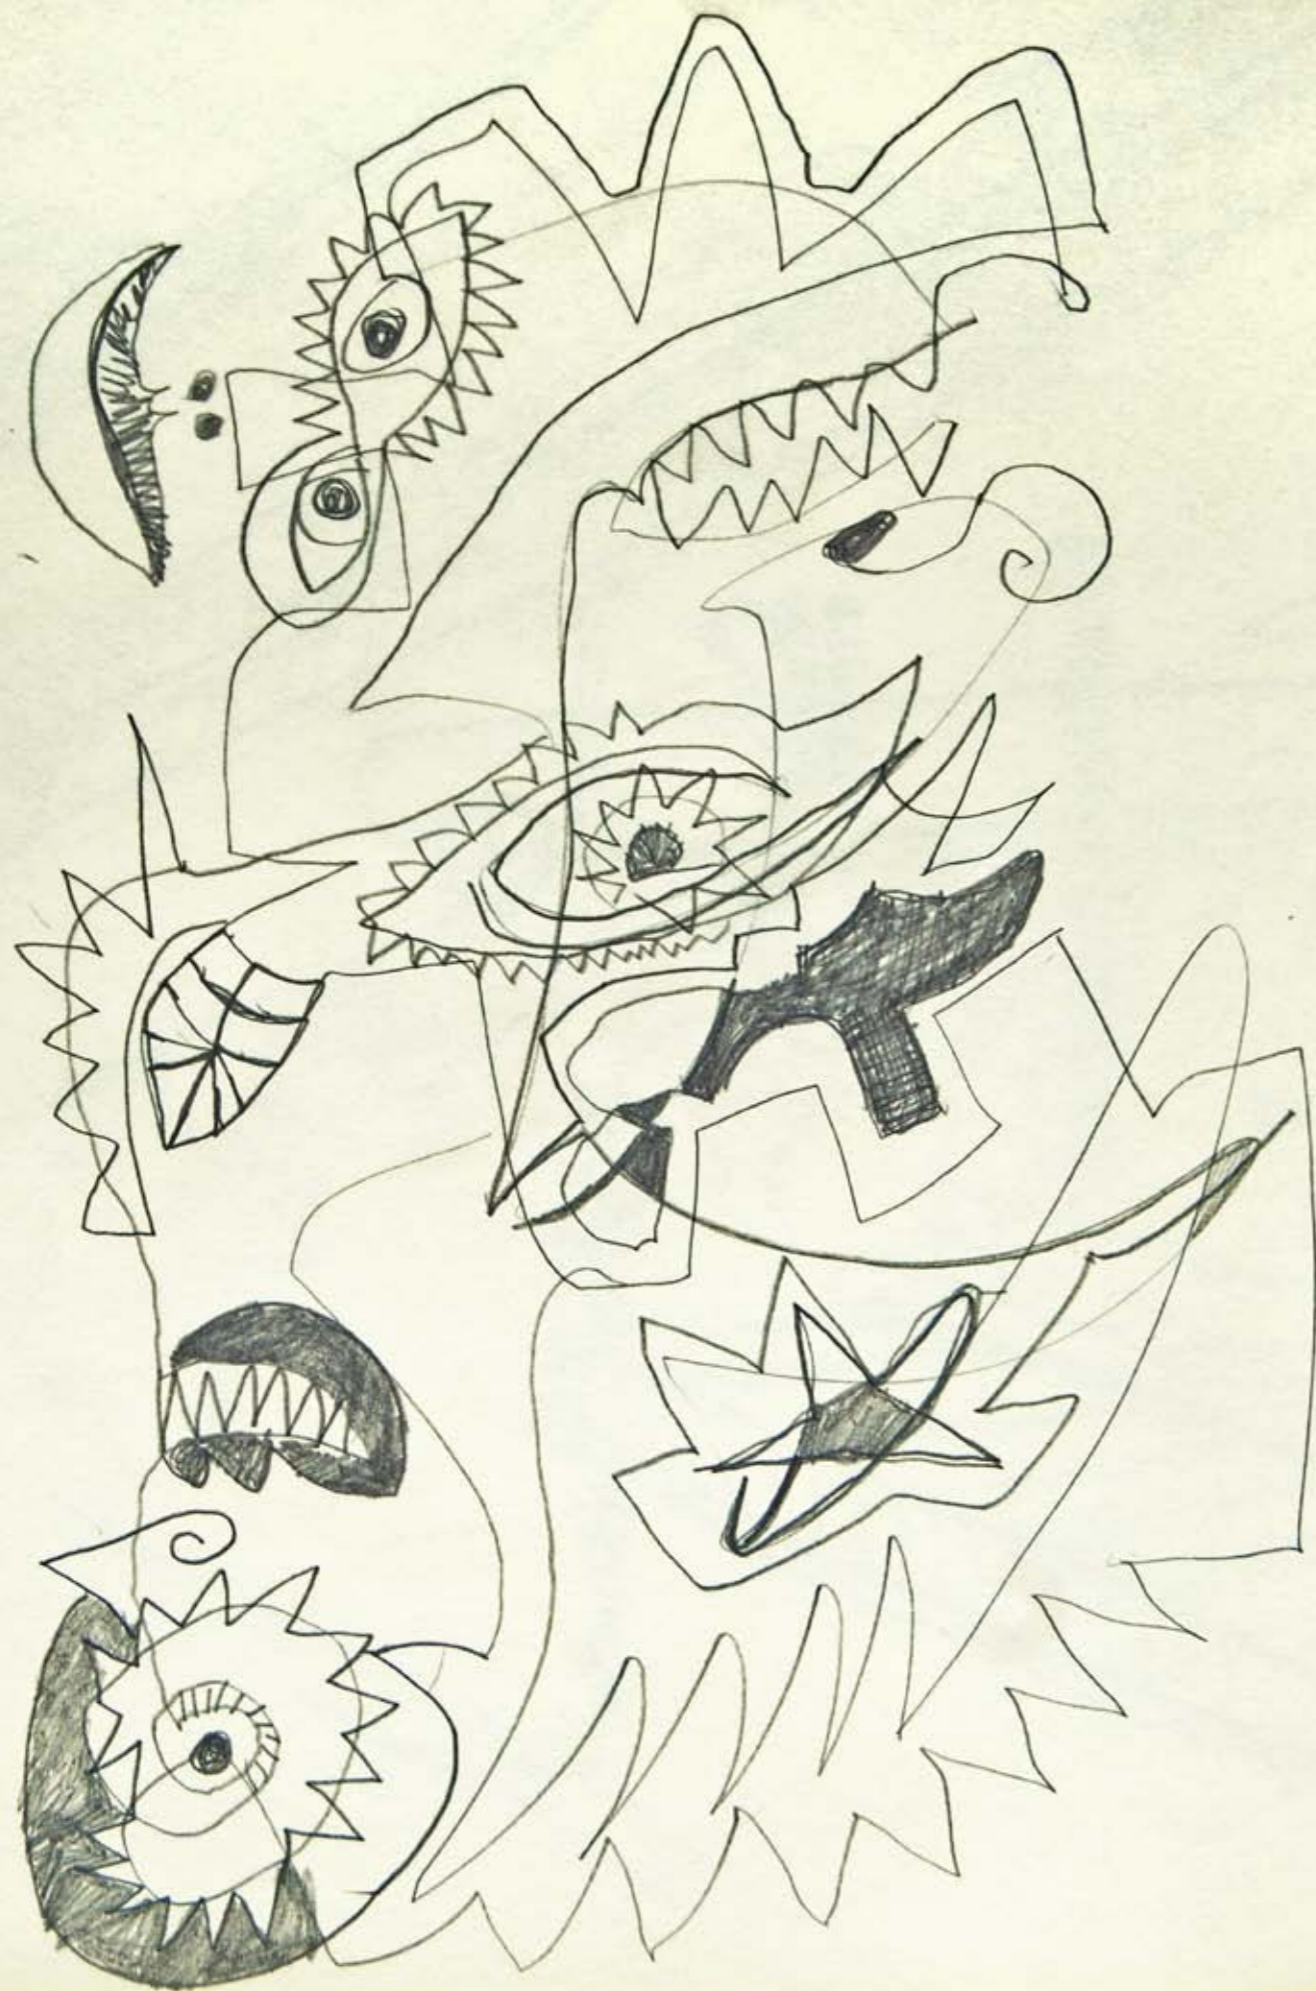

Art of kapitalism

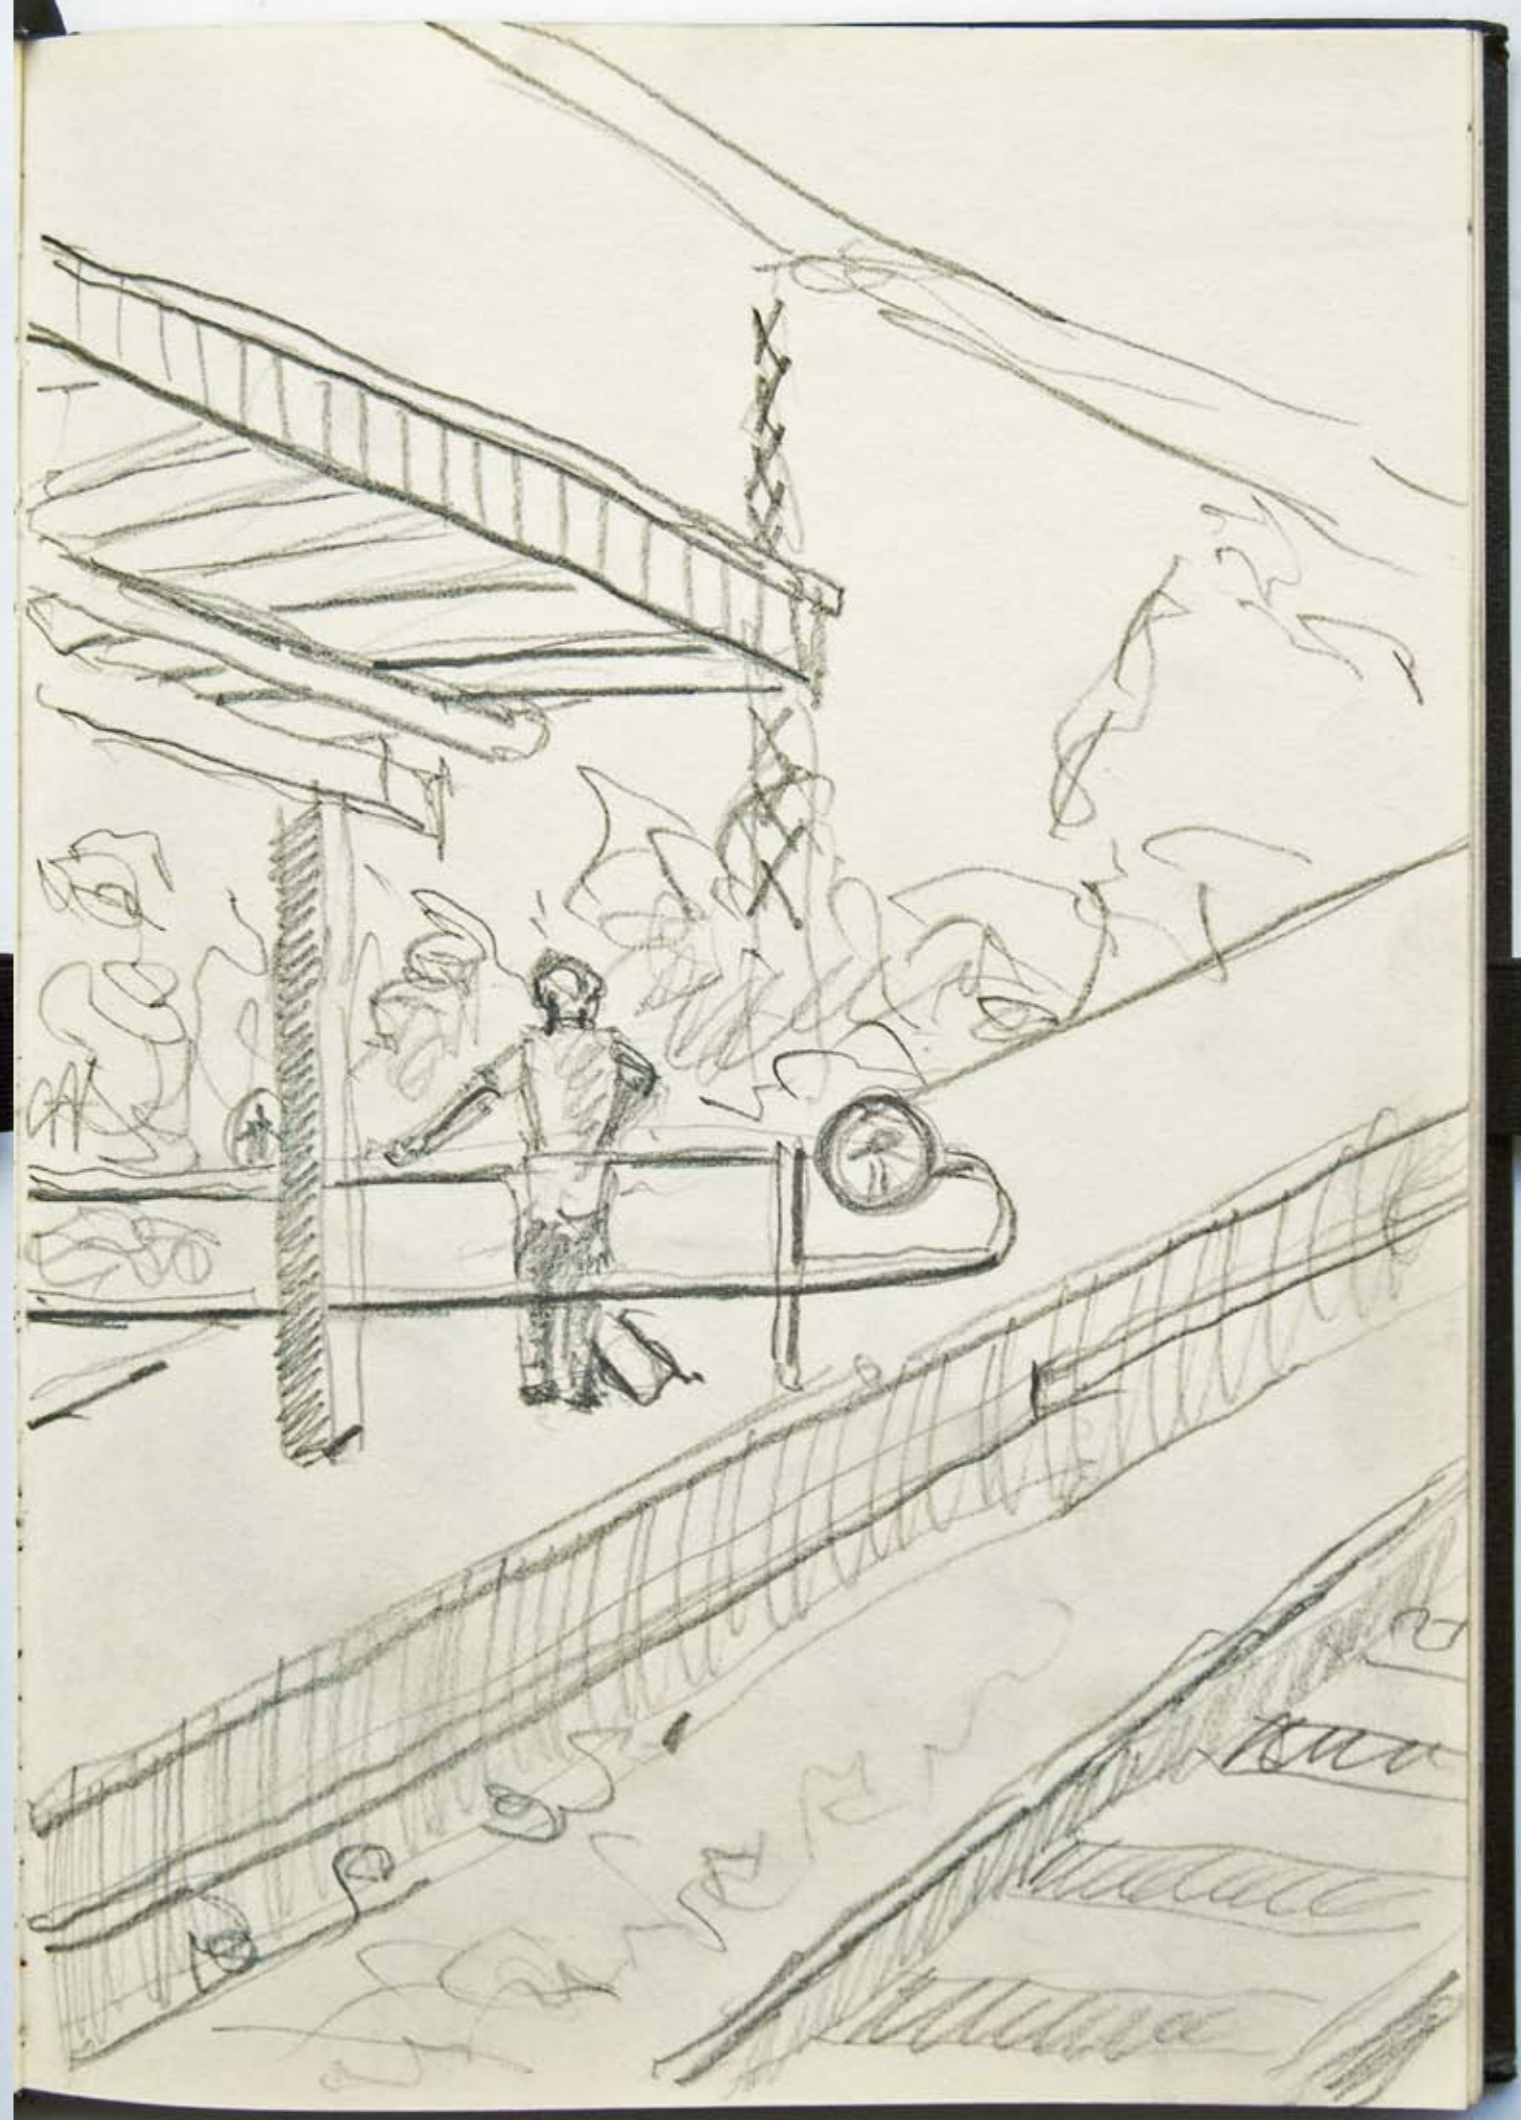

Art of your own
